

3Rs of Family Violence

Recognise, Respond & Refer

To end family violence in Australia, we must all play a part. 3Rs of Family Violence is a training program by Eastern Domestic Violence Service (EDVOS) which increases awareness of family violence, and gives you the skills to help someone experiencing abuse. This training is for everyone, no matter where you work, study or volunteer. You will learn how to:

RECOGNISE signs of family violence

RESPOND if someone tells you about family violence

REFER to specialist services that provide professional help

You will also learn about the gendered nature of family violence and how to have conversations which challenge attitudes that reinforce gender inequality.

Training is run online or in person for up to 20 people & includes:

- Qualified and experienced trainers
- A copy of the training presentation and resources
- A Certificate of Completion
- A Support Person to help anyone feeling unsafe or triggered during training
- A supportive environment - bring along snacks, drinks or support animals

3Rs of Family Violence was created by the Education and Training team at EDVOS. We are a leading provider of family violence education and have been running training for over five years. You can learn more about our team and EDVOS here.
